American Legion Marks 34th Birthday
In Various Ways from March 15 to 18

The American Legion will celebrate its 34th birthday March 15-18, dating from the historic gathering of war-worn service men in the Cirque de Paris in 1919.

Out of that caucus composed of men drawn from every combat unit in France, from the naval units and from the service and administrative units behind the lines, came the organization of The American Legion, dedicated to service of God and Country.

From the initial 1,000 men assembled in the caucus, has grown the largest organization of war veterans in the world, with nearly three million members enrolled in over 17,250 Posts in the homeland and in several friendly foreign nations.

The organization born of service on the battlefield has gone far in its first 34 years, and is recognized as the champion and spokesman for veterans of both World Wars and Korea.

Bobbin-Swinford unit 1098 of Frankfort will entertain its Post members at a potluck supper Sunday, March 15th at 5:00 p.m. Mrs. Herbert Bixler, Unit President, is inviting all Legion and Auxiliary members and their guests to attend.

In charge of arrangements for the party are Mesdames Delbert Seemann, Richard Kortanek, Ralph Nieland, Lewis Ebert, Howard Seemann, and Harry Miller. Bingo will form the main entertainment.

It includes Veterans of World Wars I and II and the Korean Conflict; organized to promote a true 100% Americanism; adequate National security; aid to the hospitalized and needy Veteran and his dependents; help for the widows and orphans of deceased Veterans. The American Legion has kept faith with its Buddies, its Community, State and Nation.

Claim It Was Not
Their Grass Fire

In the last issue of the News-Bulletin it was stated that on the previous Sunday the Mokena fire department had been called out to a grass fire at the Leo Marcoux home, south of Mokena. The information was given in this newspaper in this way, but was, however, in error.

The grass fire in question was not at the Leo Marcoux place but at their neighbors, T. J. Pethes.

The Marcoux's explain that the day before, on Saturday, some little boys from Mokena, in their wanderings, had gotten down there and started a little grass fire on the banks of the creek that runs through the Marcoux property. Having noticed this fire, Mrs. Marcoux went out and explained to the boys how dangerous it was to build a fire when it was so dry (this was before the snowfall of last week) and that the woods adjoining could easily have been set afire from this. She then assisted the boys in putting the fire out.

Homer Kids Try to
See World: Traced
Down to N. Lenox

Two young Homerites, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Scott LeFevres, evidently became afflicted with wanderlust and started out to see the world Sunday. They packed blankets and food on their sled, took their trusty peppy and were well on their way when their parents discovered their absence.

A group of neighbors went in search of them and a second group was sent in search of the first and it was well toward bed time when they were finally found near New Lenox. They had been tracked in the snow from their home on 159th St. to Mokena then down a railroad track to New Lenox. No doubt the posse of friends looked good to them by that time.

Alpine 4-H News

The Alpine Girls 4-H club met Monday in the home of Mrs. Harwood Stellwagen with 14 members present. Two new members were taken into the club.

Betty Stellwagen gave a talk on "Planning My Flower Garden" and Charlotte Alberts gave a demonstration on accurate measurement.

Carla Mrosek played a piano solo "The Wee Folk". Plans were made for a traveling basket to raise money for the club. Four games were played with Carla Mrosek in charge. She and Ione Lou Janulis served refreshments.—Sharon Lauffer, reporter.

The New Lenox Lions club will put on an unusual form of entertainment Friday and Saturday night March 13 and 14, in the way of a mock show mimicking some of the most popular TV programs and celebrities. The novel affair will be held at the Haven school starting at 8 o'clock.

Among the television headlines that will be mimicked in this show of fun and hilarity will be, in the order of their appearance, Arthur Godfrey and His Friends, I Love Lucy, Loud Mouth Jackie Gleason, with none of the bluster omitted, and probably some added. What's My Line?, smiling Jim Moran's courtesy hour which will include everything but a new Hudson, Herb Shriner, the slouching Hoosier boy whose droll humor is the talk of the country, and the solemn Clifton Utey looking into the future behind the Iron Curtain.

All local talent—exclusively Lion's Club talent, if you please—will be engaged in spotlighting and lampooning, at the Haven school, these video headlines we see so often on our television screens.

The Lions Club have gone all out to make this take off of TV characters the liveliest thing ever presented in New Lenox.

Reports have come in by key-hole eyewitnesses of some of the rehearsals that the show is a scream—simply hysterical. No one in this area will want to miss it, for it is just what the doctor ordered.

New Lenox To Have
New Delicatessen

A new delicatessen has made its debut in New Lenox. Proprietor is Mrs. Jeanette Pusch. The delicatessen, which is located at the corner of Joliet road and Cooper street, specializes in all home made ready foods, including pastries, cakes and old fashioned cinnamon and raisin buns.

Mrs. Pusch and her husband have lived in New Lenox for over 11 years, having come from Markham. They bought the place and remodeled it into a home and store.

Previously, she had many years experience in Chicago as a caterer, and has been until recently, the pastry cook at Hotel Louis Joliet, in Joliet.

The new delicatessen is the only one in this area.

WITH NEW PARK

The Mokena Civic Association held a special meeting Tuesday evening, March 3, to again consider the park question.

The special meeting had been preceded by an invitation to all organizations to send representatives and in spite of the wintry storm, some ten to twelve organizations sent representatives: Scouts, churches, Lions, PTA, Players etc.

Dean Rueckert was appointed to head a financial committee to head the campaign for funds. For a start, the names of Henry Clark, Mrs. Rueckert, Harley Mann, W. Spiewack, Ray Hoolehan, J. S. Perry, G. Swart, L. Marcoux, M. Owen, R. Richardson, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Erdman, T. Lackey, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Swanberg and Rev. Riemann were placed on this committee.

The meeting was informed that the payment of $2000.00 due on March 1st had been made on a tract at the end of Mokena St. and LaPorte Road, that a clear title is available, that although only $6000.00 is needed by June 1st to complete the transaction, much more money would be required. Additional funds would be needed for installation of equipment, grading water and sanitary facilities, etc. It was also thought desirable to place two tennis courts and children's playground equipment in the present village park behind the churches, if the financial drive is a big success.

It is confidently expected that enough preliminary and basic factors would be taken care of early enough so that the park can be used by June—the Girl Scouts are already planning their day camp program in the new park.

It was agreed also that the organization in town might furnish teams to solicit funds in a house-to-house campaign, from business groups, from residents of Sunny Acres, Woodland Circle, the farm areas etc., so that no one would be denied the opportunity of helping in this cause. Lions Club president Hoolehan indicated his organization would furnish at least two such teams.

Some money has already been received for the park and the enthusiasm for the project is extremely high. There have been no objections heard from any quarter. Money can be given in a lump sum, or pledged to be paid weekly or monthly for a period of time not decided upon as yet—probably six to twelve months.

The Civic Association itself does not wish to control the park, but until its by-laws are changed, it will take title and direct the financial campaign. However, in order that the administration and operation of the park be truly representative of the entire village, a resolution was unanimously adopted which in effect said it is the sense of the Civic Association that the park be administered by a special park committee consisting of ten (or more if necessary) members, elected by delegates from each organization at a meeting called for that purpose.

To Show Film,
"Fall of a Great Nation," March 29

A color lecture film entitled "The Fall of a Great Nation" will be presented at the Calvary Baptist church in Lincoln Estates Sunday, March 29, starting at 8 p.m. This is a remarkable film which contains a timely and challenging message for Americans.

It vividly portrays the end of Adolf Hitler's Germany. Fully documented, it traces the growth of the Nazi totalitarian states, describes the struggle of the Christian churches for survival and shows the destruction brought upon Germany by war and destruction in World War II. The story begins in the Austrian Alps, tours Germany and ends in a little Bavarian churchyard at the graveside of four American soldiers.

Many scenes of German life are shown in this fine color film the Bavarian countryside, Regensburg on the Danube Munich birthplace of the Nazi party the concentration camp at Ohrdruff, and the destroyed cities of Germany. The film is scored with a background of classical and religious music.

Everybody is invited to see this wonderful color picture, and can be sure of an evening they will not soon forget.

GENERAL CONTRACT AWARDED TO
ROBT. G. REGAN CO., JOLIET

To Break Ground For Construction of
New High School Soon, As Per Weather

Meet March 13 in Frankfort To Talk
Air-Spotting Post

An observation post to spot airplanes flying between Joliet and Chicago Heights is needed in Frankfort and towards this end a U. S. air force ground observant civilian defense meeting will be held in Frankfort gymnasium March 13, immediately after the regular Frankfort PTA meeting, which will be held in the same place. The civilian defense meeting will start at 8:15 p.m. A 30-minute film of a simulated air attack on New York City will be shown.

It is no small matter when a country as democratic in way of life as ours faces aggression from a foreign power. We are sending our life's blood in the form of supplies and manpower to most North Atlantic Treaty Organization countries. A very important artery reaches out to Korea, where we have put up a great stand against a determined enemy who has lost a great deal. Yet, this enemy has also drained us of much blood and material.

President Eisenhower stated that we must win the "cold war" to show any would be aggressor that, united with the United Nations, we can come out on top. Yet have you ever considered what a Hot War would bring? Could we stand the air attack on our homes which would be sure to come? The people in London who survived the "blitz" know the devastation of aerial bombardment and how important it is for us in the United States to have an efficient Ground Observation System.

The responsibility for this "aircraft spotting" belongs to each of us. If we love our way of life we must protect it. Now is the time to act. With our sons and relatives even now fighting in Korea, Russia increasing the number of her troops and tanks in East Germany added to the fact that she has eight to every one of our planes, can we deceive ourselves any longer?

The only answer to this threat is Defense. Civilians must be the defenders. Only you and your neighbor can keep our country free. If you want to do your part, become a member of the Ground Observer Corps and win your "Silver Wings."

For information call or write George Sangmeister, mayor of Frankfort.

New Lenox Child
Dies of Chickenpox

Terrence John Canary, 4 1/2 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Canary, of New Lenox died Monday at the Silver Cross hospital, evidently from chicken pox.

Three brothers survive: Wayne, George and Timothy, and a sister, Emma; his paternal grandfather, Wayne Canary, of Toledo and his maternal grandmother Emma D. Hillman of Manistich, Mich.

Funeral services were held at the Blood and Grant funeral home Monday afternoon, with the Rev. Joseph Peoples, Jr. of the Christ Episcopal church officiating.

Contracts for the new Lincolnway high school, District 210, were let last Wednesday evening at a special meeting held in Mokena. There were 14 bids for the general contract. Their bid was by the Citywide Builders of Chicago, and was for $844,907.

There were nine bids for painting and decorating. The National Decorating Service of Chicago submitted the low bid of $5290, and the contract was awarded to them. The Plamondon Decorating Co., of Chicago, submitted the high bid of $10,387.00.

On the asphalt tile floor there were five bidders. Contract was awarded to the C. E. Korsgaard of Chicago, for low bid of $5422. The high bid was that of Beaulieu Resilient Floor Co., contractors, of River Grove, for $6570.

Twelve bidders competed on the heating and ventilating. Contract was awarded to Borg & Co., Inc., of Chicago, for low bid of $115,876.00. Highest bid was by the Associated Pipe Contractors, Inc., Chicago for $137,898.00.

The plumbing contract will be awarded at the regular meeting in Mokena Wednesday night. Low bid on the plumbing was submitted by A. J. Lowe & Son Inc., of Lyons, for $85,714.00. This includes a well, plumbing and sewerage disposal plant.

High bid on the plumbing was made by Louis Smith & Sons, Inc., of Chicago, and was for $116,995.00.

Six bids had been submitted which combined plumbing, heating, and ventilating. These were not considered because of their having been thus combined.

There were five bids on electrical wiring and fixtures. Contract was awarded to the low bidder, Hoffman Electrical Co., Chicago, for $87,430. High bid on this work was for $100,353.00 by the Builders Lighting Construction Co., of Chicago.

Alternate bids approved were the completion of the vocational shop, for $24,780.00. This was in addition to the general contractor's bid.

All of these bids have been classified by the architects as base bids, and none of them include a performance bond.

In addition, the board approved the installation of acoustical tile ceiling in the classrooms and corridors. The board also made a change in their plans of lighting and changed to fluorescent lights instead of incandescent fixtures, as at first specified, which will add $9,500 to the electric contractors bid, but at the same time the Public Service Co. is estimating they will be saving about 33%, or $300 a month on their light bills. In view of this the board thought it best to put in the fluorescent lights and make that saving, which over a period of years will more than compensate for the increased original cost.

The board also made a change in some of the specified material, inasmuch as since it was first designated many new materials have come on the market which have been studied and investigated by the architects and the board, and some of this material is as good and better than they had planned on in the first place, and its use would prove an economy. For example, they are now going to put in a different type of maple flooring than they had originally planned. This is a flooring set on a cork base, instead of a wooden sub-floor as previously planned.

The references and recommendations of all these contractors have been thoroughly investigated, and all have been found to have excellent ratings.

Of interest to the District is this: the insurance agents living in this School District have formed a Lincolnway Insurance (Continued on back page)

The Methodist Dramatic club announces that a change has been made in the personnel of "Ladies in Retirement." Rhea Campbell was unable to continue in the role of "Lucy" a pert young country maid. That part is now being played by Vera Chapman, a newcomer to New Lenox, who has been taking an active part in the Dramatic club. It will be interesting to meet her as "Lucy" when the "Ladies in Retirement" are presented at Haven school April 9, 10, and 11.

The club is conducting a search for several items for their play. Mrs. Marion Kerr is in charge of properties. She is hunting for a sea-telescope, two old fashioned black umbrellas, an old fashioned kerosene can, heavy, long lace curtains, and a pair of red velvet drapes. She will settle for a pair of blue, green or brown velvet drapes, if available. If anyone can help with any of these much needed items, call Mrs. Kerr at New Lenox 3761.

Why cows are healthier without grain

Grasses are the natural food for all ruminants. The unique four stomach digestive system of the cow enables her to convert roughages into ALL her requirements for meat and milk production.

The Blenda Life program feeds the bacteria in the cow's paunch

To feed one cow on conventional grain feeding takes about 5 acres

To feed one cow on the Blenda Life Program takes 1 1/4 acres!

BOTH METHODS PRODUCE APPROXIMATELY THE SAME AMOUNT OF MILK PER COW but your acres produce 4 times as much milk on the Blenda Life program. Think of the increased income Blenda Life can mean to you!

BABSON SAYS—
Babson Park, Fla., Mar. 12. I personally did not know Mr. Stalin but I knew the Tolstoy family who were very well acquainted with him. They have many times told me that he had very little to say and that he felt there was no one in Russia who could fill his shoes. All of this means that there will be considerable of an inner conflict amongst the leaders, even though they outwardly acknowledge Malenkov as the new Dictator. At the present writing it is impossible to say how long Malenkov will be able to hang on to his job. I, however, am assured that there is no danger of the people starting a revolution. If one comes, it will be "a palace revolution," started by the Government or Army heads.
Effect on the Satellites
Of course, there have been many signs of internal strife behind the Iron Curtain. Violence, a characteristic of Russia.

sian politics in evidence long before the rise of Communism, has marked the struggle for personal power. The purges in the satellite countries, the elimination of the Moscow doctors, have given strong evidence that Stalin's illness was well known by the ruling groups in the Soviet Union. Now, despite Moscow's desperate efforts to tighten the manacles upon the satellite countries and the entire Soviet Bloc, factions favoring Titoism may be encouraged. Freedom-lovers in Czechoslovakia and Poland must already be filled with new courage and hope.

Meanwhile, uncertainty will rule until some man of proven power emerges in Moscow. Until the new dictator shows that he can hold on to his job, there is no sense in speculating on what the new policies and their effects upon the rest of the world will be. I do say this, however: While Stalin is being eulogized publicly, one of the coldest and cruelest struggles for power in the history of the world will be going on behind the difficult times which lie the scenes. The new dictator will find himself in a vacuum into which will rush all the elements of violence that Stalin has managed to hold in abeyance. The temptation to unify his people and take their minds off their woes by provoking war will be filled with uneasiness. Malenkov is a less moderate man than was Stalin. However, he will not "show his hand" until he is sure of his power, or until he is forced to take action in order to unite the masses behind him.

Defense Preparations Will Continue
President Eisenhower is admirably equipped to make propitious decisions during the stormy days ahead. He knows how easily war could stem from the situation which we will be witnessing over the period immediately ahead. England, has of course, been more conciliatory toward Russia than we have, but this attitude may help ease the friction between Russia and the United States during the difficult times which lie ahead. Restraint and extreme caution must be used if we are to avoid extension of the war. The Soviet Union, under its precarious new leadership, might decide suddenly to resort to full scale war to unite its people. Hence, it may be wise to lie low along the international fronts until the situation becomes definitely clearer.

As I analyze the probabilities of the near term, I would say that there is a 60-40 chance of our being able to develop a workable diplomatic program which will enable us to get by without spreading the war. Above all, it would be extremely unwise for our people to be misled by early rumors. Don't rush to take radical action. Watch the situation calmly and look for the underlying trends rather than the day to day switches in the international weather vane. Those owning businesses should keep a firm rein over their inventories and cost but should not be stampeded into foolish or rash moves which they may later regret.

Outlook for the Stock Mkt.
All of the above indicates that there will be a cooling off period and, on the whole, the near term prospects for peace look better. I the American people agree with me, the price of the war stocks may fall off, which would mean a decline in the Industrial Averages. Later, the situation will have to be reviewed in the light of Malenkov's actions.

IN MEMORIAM

LOWE, Elizabeth.—In loving memory of our wife and mother who passed away five years ago March 16. Time may pass and bring its changes, Fresh with every coming year, But your memory will be cherished In the hearts that hold her dear.

WILLIAM LOWE and FAMILY.

Mrs. Lizzie Moriarty, who is lovingly known to her many friends as Aunt Lizzie, will celebrate her 90th birthday anniversary today, March 12. Mrs. E. G. McMahon, her daughter-in-law is planning for a quiet celebration to give friends and relatives an opportunity to call. At the same time Aunt Lizzie's granddaughter, Winnifred, will celebrate her birthday which occurred on March 11.

Ray Gunhouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Gunhouse, is stationed at the Sanford, Florida naval air base. Ray had a short leave from the base last week and spent the few days in St. Petersburg, looking over the city and enjoying its scenery, when suddenly he met Alfred Hatch. Hard to say which was the most surprised and both enjoyed visiting with someone from the old home town.

The Mokena Book club will meet Friday, March 13 in the home of Mrs. Leo Marcoux at 8 pm. Mrs. Ray Hoolehan will be the hostess. Mrs. Henry Clark will review, "Through Charlie's Door."

The WSCS of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. William Roberts this afternoon. Those who do not have any transportation should meet at the church at 1:30 and there will be a way.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Hauser was christened in St. Mary's Catholic church Sunday morning. The name given was Colleen. Sponsors were Mrs. Osborne and Jack Loughane, both of Chicago. A dinner was served in the home of the baby's grandmother, Mrs. John Walsh, following the service for 40 relatives.

Dan Lauffer, who has been living at Spencer, near New Lenox, has sold his home there to Mr. Joe Gregory of Joliet. He has gone to Chicago to make his home with his daughter Margaret for a while. Margaret's husband, Walter Dahlke was stricken with polio last September and has since been in a polio hospital northwest of Chicago. He has received braces for one leg and is now in the process of learning to walk with it. The Dahlkes have two children.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Benson have moved into their newly built home on Hiawatha ave., in Mineral Springs subdivision. Moving into the apartment in the Murphy building which they vacated, is Mrs. Benson's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sowa of Joliet.

The Evening circle of the WSCS of the Methodist church will meet in the home of Mrs. George Devlin Friday evening, March 13 at 8 pm. Anyone interested in this evening meeting is cordially invited to attend.

Dr. and Mrs. George Lengerich were called to Dayton, Ohio last Thursday because of the death of his mother, Mrs. Frances Lengerich, 84, who died in the Dayton hospital following a siege of pneumonia. The funeral was Saturday and the Lengerich's returned home Monday.

Durward Fant, who underwent surgery in Silver Cross hospital, is recuperating nicely at home. He expects to return to his work in Chicago next week.

A good attendance was noted at the game night of the VFW last Friday evening.

Mrs. Josephine Sayers is staying at the home of her son Harold Sayers for a few weeks.

Accountable to God

Lesson for March 15, 1953

WE all know that "responsible" is a good word, even if we might have a hard time saying exactly what it means. A person feels responsible when he knows that it's up to him to make good, and knows that some one will have the right to ask him: What about it? Somebody knows about this job I am doing, somebody cares, so I will have to give him an account of what I have done. I shall have to satisfy him that I have done my best. If I fail, he will lay me out for it. If I succeed, he will praise me and see that I get my reward.

The Irresponsible

People shift into grades, just as peas or potatoes do, only not on the basis of size. People can be graded according to their sense of responsibility. At the bottom of the human heap are the irresponsible.

This doesn't include babies and idiots, who can't help it. The irresponsible who really cause trouble in the world are the people who ought to be responsible, but aren't. They can't be depended on to do any job well, or at all. They never hold any job long. They have no pride in their work, no self-respect. They never carry their end of the log, they neither work nor worry, and they are no good.

Some distance above the irresponsible type are those who will give an accounting only to themselves. They don't like supervision, they don't like to ask if what they are doing satisfies anybody but themselves. They don't want their work or their lives inspected. If they suit themselves that is all they ask. Such persons make good artists, but they are too often undependable and antisocial, because they just don't care what other people think. It is a childish attitude, after all. We all go through this stage; but if we don't pass beyond it we really cannot call ourselves grown up.

"Is He Well Liked?"

On a higher level are those whose "boss" is popular opinion. Willy, in "The Death of a Salesman," keeps asking the same two questions about everybody. "Is he liked?" and "Is he well liked?" Willy would feel the world caving in on him if he could not say "yes" to both questions about himself. One thing that makes "Death of a Salesman" one of the most moving tragedies of our time, is that Willy finds out, too late, that a man can be well liked and still a failure. Popular opinion makes a poor boss.

Above Willy's level are those who feel accountable, not to everybody and anybody, but to the "best people." If they can satisfy a small but select group they are quite contented.

If such a person is an artist, he will crave a good word from perhaps just one discriminating critic. If he is a legislator, he will receive special gifts from special people and he will vote to please those people. These persons may have high standards (it depends on the kind of people they try to please) but they do not often serve the public well, just because they really don't care for the public nor for what people may think.

To God Alone

There is, after all, one final Judge. There is One whom all men are responsible, to whom we must give an account of ourselves. At the very top grade of humanity are those whose heart's deep prayer is to be pleasing to God. This is the highest form that responsibility can take.

Now this need not be in conflict with accountability to man. Only a stupid hired man would say to the farmer: "I don't care whether you like the way I handle the tractor. I'm working to please God, not you." A person who will not do his best on his job is not likely to please the Lord. Nevertheless, in the long run, it is God's voice we shall all have to hear, and his verdict is what will count. And as Jesus so vividly prophesied, the thing God wants most to inquire about is how we treated our fellow-men.

Humanity is everybody's business. No matter how well we may please our various bosses in this world, or how well we do our particular jobs, we shall not be a success, after all, if we have failed in God's eyes.

A Difficult "Situation"

Did you see that "Classified Ad" last week? The one that wanted a farmhand who had to be "an expert agriculturist, sheep herder, tractor driver, bridge player," plus being "an authority on chemistry and mathematics"?

Slim Thomas, who ran that ad more or less as a joke, called and said, "I got 23 answers and almost every one claimed they could meet all those qualifications! That means I want to keep the man I have—'Handy' Peters.

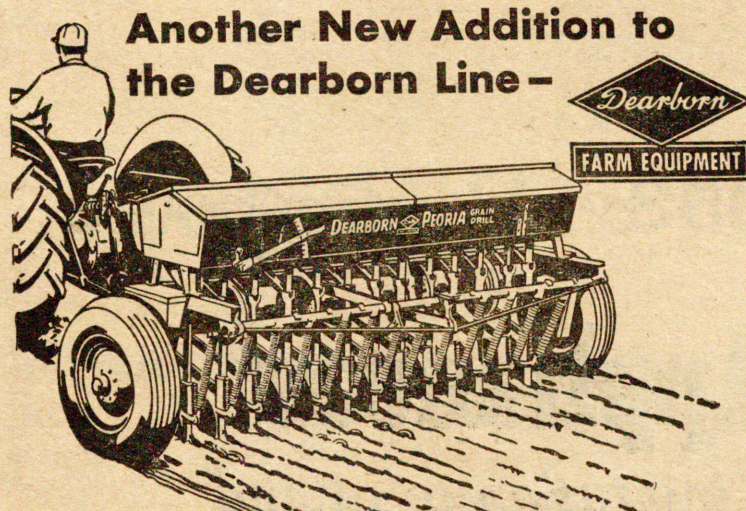

"He was thinking of quitting but now I've got to talk him into staying. Handy never pretends to be an expert, he's just a good all-around hired hand."

From where I sit, Slim's smart to be wary of people who consider themselves to be all-around "experts." Some folks will "expert" on anything—from the clothes a man should wear to whether he ought to drink beer or butter-milk. Personally I don't want to "classify" myself as knowing all the right answers.

New Farmall Shown Here

Here's the new Farmall Super H, recently announced by the International Harvester Company. It has 14% greater power and up to 26% faster field speeds. Tests show that it has the power and speed to pull a standard three-furrow moldboard plow in most soil conditions, plow up to 13 acres a day and cultivate up to 65 acres with four-row equipment. A new valve-in-head engine and self-energizing, double-disc brakes head a list of 21 major improvements in the new Super H. The tractor is on display at the International Harvester dealer's showroom here.

Motor Club Seeks To Put Teeth in Ill. Traffic Laws

The Chicago Motor Club has suggested changes in Illinois traffic laws and police pension fund provisions to make the Illinois Driver's License and the Safety Responsibility Laws more effective.

Today the Driver's License Law provides that a driver's license shall be revoked upon conviction of serious driving offenses such as drunken driving, and the Safety Responsibility Law requires that the license cannot be reinstated until the applicant shows proof of his financial responsibility. This revocation of license and requirement of showing proof of financial responsibility applies only when conviction of the offender is under the state law.

At the present time there are in existence many city ordinances which duplicate state laws. When a person is convicted under these municipal ordinances his driver's license cannot be suspended nor proof of financial responsibility be demanded. Thus many traffic offenders escape the loss of their licenses and the need to show their financial responsibility because they are tried under local ordinances rather than state laws.

Many cities and villages have adopted these ordinances duplicating the state laws in order to make certain that the fines for violations go to the city treasuries rather than the county and also that 10 per cent of the fines collected be applied to municipal police pension funds. At the present time if violators are tried under state laws for offenses committed within city limits, in some cases the fines may go to the county instead of the city.

The changes proposed by the Chicago Motor Club would:

1. Require that serious offenses involving revocation of drivers' licenses be tried under state law. This would prohibit trial of violators for serious offenses under city ordinances.

2. Provide that fines for the traffic violations tried under state law would be paid directly to the municipalities.

3. Direct that 10% of the fines for traffic violations under state law be paid into police pension funds as is now done under city ordinance violations.

Thus the cities would not be deprived of revenue, police pension funds would not lose income and the purpose of the Driver's License Law to bar from the highways the worst traffic offenders could be enforced.

Propose Educational Television Station For Chicago Area

Chicagoans are so anxious to have an educational television station that they are literally pleading for a chance to help finance such a chance.

President John T. Rettaliata of Illinois Institute of Technology and other Chicago educators say they are being swamped with inquiries about how contributions can be made to make the proposed station a reality.

It's a pleasant way to be swamped, they admit.

Dr. Rettaliata asks that donors mail checks to Chicago Educational Television Council, Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago 16, Ill. Checks should be made out to the Council, which is a nonprofit corporation created by local educators for eventual ownership and operation of the proposed station.

Dr. Rettaliata, Col. Clifford Gregg, director of the Chicago Natural History Museum, and Daniel Catton Rich, director of the Art Institute of Chicago, are serving as volunteer trustees of the funds received prior to incorporation of the Council.

Donors will receive acknowledgments of their gifts. Dr. Rettaliata said, and a record will be kept of all contributors. Gifts will be returned if lack of support blocks creation of the station.

Early donors are being asked to serve on solicitation committees and to list friends who also will serve. These committees will conduct a community campaign to raise the $500,000 needed before June, 1953, to insure creation of the station.

The Federal Communications Commission has allocated TV channel 11 for the proposed educational outlet.

On March 20 the speaker will be Lieut. Commissioner Albert E. Chesham of Richmond, Va., who retired recently as commander of The Salvation Army's

Western Ave. Is Chicago's Longest Continuous Street

Chicago's claim to fame does not end with its scenic Lake Shore Drive. It also boasts the longest and shortest streets in the nation reports the Chicago Motor Club.

The longest uninterrupted street is Western avenue. It extends for 23 1/2 miles from 11900 south to 7600 north. State street takes second place, with its 17 mile length through the heart of the city.

Chicago's south side claims the next longest uninterrupted streets in the Chicago area, 87th street and 79th street respectively. Both streets, 87th street, 10 3-16 miles and 79th street, 10 1-8 miles, begin at the lake front and end at the western limits of the city. Belmont avenue follows with 10 miles of pavement running east and west from the lake west, to the city limits.

Longmeadow avenue, the shortest Chicago street, runs for only 31.6 feet just south of Devon avenue and west of Cicero avenue. Armstrong street holds second place with only 82 feet. Armstrong street is located west of Michigan boulevard and south of Chicago avenue on the near north side.

Chicago streets contain either 8 or 12 blocks per mile. Running north and south they're divided 8 per mile, east and west 12. The average length of a city block in the metropolitan area ranges between 400 and 700 feet. These figures emphasize the short length of Longmeadow avenue and Armstrong street—Chicago's shortest, thoroughfares.

Need 7500 More Highway Patrolmen Throughout Nation

Rural highway patrols enforcing traffic laws against speeders and other dangerous drivers must be increased immediately in all but a few states to head off "shocking increases" in deaths and injuries in traffic accidents, the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies warns.

The most conservative estimates show that from 5,000 to 7,000 more highway patrolmen are needed in the nation as a whole to protect the public more adequately against accidents caused by drivers violating traffic laws, according to Thomas N. Boate, manager of the Association's accident prevention department. He added that they should be assigned en-tirely to rural highways, "where they will do the most good in reducing accidents."

Declaring that highway patrol forces in general are "dangerously understaffed," Mr. Boate said he made his estimate of their "urgent" manpower needs after comparing present numerical strength with standards established for the various states by the International Association of Chiefs of Police.
